Funny Stories from Boy Scout Camp

Perfection, however desired, has not probably been attained in the execution of a work, in which, from a confused mass of words, an alphabetical list was to be formed, and, from a maze of idiomatic perplexity, clearness and perspicuity were to be produced. This comes from the effort that he puts into each one of his photographs which according to his own words he tries to make it as the best that particular scene can be shot and in most cases turns out to be that way and can not be replicated by .
